

ZONTE'S FOOTSTEP
2004 VERDELHO
Review Summary

88 pts “Scents of a farmer’s market fill this wine — baskets of fresh peaches and stacks of silver queen corn. The flavors come to a juicy end, with mild acidity to keep a little tension in the finish. It’s smooth and should develop well over the next several years.”

Wine & Spirits
Feb. 2006

87 pts - BEST BUY “The crisp, tank-fermented and aged 2004 Verdelho exhibits lemon zest and almond paste characteristics in its light to medium-bodied, richly fruity style.”

Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate
October 2004/Issue 155