

2006 ZONTE'S FOOTSTEP SHIRAZ VIOGNIER

Review Summary

93 pts “A special synergy with Viognier makes smooth and supple Langhorne Creek shiraz even more so; no-one could dislike this gently spicy wine, with lifted red fruits and minimal tannins.”

James Halliday
2008 Wine Companion

90 pts – SMART BUY “Broad and generous. A real mouthful of smoky, tar-scented blackberry and licorice flavors, persisting against fine tannins on the long finish.”

Wine Spectator
September 30, 2007

89 pts “The 2006 Shiraz (94%) – Viognier (6%) offers a classy perfume of bacon, sausage, and blueberry. Supple-textured, ripe, and sweetly-fruited, it has an outstanding, seamless, long finish. It is a terrific value. Zonte’s Footstep is the creation of Geoff Hardy and John Pargeter. Over the last several years they have produced a number of notable values from their Langhorne Creek vineyards. The 2006 Shiraz (94%) – Viognier (6%) offers a classy perfume of bacon, sausage, and blueberry. Supple-textured, ripe, and sweetly-fruited, it has an outstanding, seamless, long finish. It is a terrific value.”

Robert Parker’s The Wine Advocate
October 2007, Issue 173