

2007 ZONTE'S FOOTSTEP VIOGNIER

Review Summary

88 pts “Light yellow. Fresh pear, peach, mint and mineral aromas are complicated by green tea and succulent herbs. Already complex and expressive, offering zesty orchard fruit and citrus flavors and a dusty undercurrent of minerals. Turns richer on the finish, which leaves a sweet honeydew quality behind. I'd drink this on the young side.”

Josh Raynolds
Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
Jul/Aug 2008